

Heritage restored Area Development

Utilizing Historical & Cultural Heritages for Better QOL & Commerce

Local heritages are irreplaceable resources for daily life, and may be usable to activate commercial activities.

When redevelop the area, historical heritages need to be restored, and, on the other hand, necessary social infrastructure needs to be improved.

Those two conflicting opinions need to be coordinated and harmonized, during the planning stage, with several specific schemes that JTPA has introduced, so far.
